What Does the Port Do?

Go to the Port of Friday Harbor website: www.portfridayharbor.org to learn more about the Port.

What Does a Commissioner Do?

- The Commissioners attend meetings to establish broad policies for the overall direction and long-term objectives of the Port. Ideally, the policies reflect the values, priorities and needs of the community as well as providing the direction the Port needs to be competitive.
- The Commission hires an Executive Director to implement Port policies and objectives, and administer and operate the Port and its staff.
- The Commission determines the type of business activity in which the Port engages, identifies short and long-term business strategies, sets financial policies, adopts positions on legislation, and establishes the extent of use for powers of taxation and eminent domain.

This is a position in the community, not a job. It requires common sense and the ability to function as a leader. You will be an equal third of a decision making body. Commissioners describe their relationship as being similar to a Board of Directors with the CEO of a corporation. As elected officials charged with protecting public interests and resources, commissioners are accountable to the public in highly “transparent” ways that a typical corporate board member is not. Commission meetings are subject to the Open Public Meetings Act (Chapter 42.30 RCW) and typically run under 2 hours. Training on State laws and regulations that govern elected/appointed officials will be made available. As a Commissioner you can coordinate with the other Commissioners to select events to attend and represent the Port.

Do I qualify?

- You must be registered to vote and reside within Port District 3 of the Port of Friday Harbor.
- Familiarity with aviation and marine activities is a plus but not required.
- You are willing to listen, learn, and make decisions which you will stand by.

Would I Be Compensated?

- Commissioner compensation is $254 per month and $114 per meeting day (regardless of the number of meetings during the day), with a maximum of 96 days per year. The Commission regularly meets twice a month, but special meetings are sometimes scheduled. Participation in the Port's medical plan is available.
- Washington Public Ports Association (WPPA) conferences fees and travel are paid by the Port.

How Do I Apply?

If you are interested, registered to vote, and reside in Port District 3, please submit a formal letter of interest by May 18, 2023, describing why you are applying and why you are confident you would be a highly-effective, and respected Port Commissioner.

Mail the above information to: toddn@portfridayharbor.org

Or deliver in person to the Port office at 204 Front Street

What is the selection process?

- Letters of interest will be reviewed at the beginning of June. Finalist candidates will be interviewed the following week.
- The two Commissioners will then decide and invite a new Commissioner for District 3.
